

In between 2021

When I sum up the year 2021, I remember that the year was something in between.

The world was not completely shut down due to the covid-19 pandemic, -but something in between.

My choices of subject matters in my photography became areas and subjects in between. Unconsciously.

The Pyrenees are located between France and Spain. Stretches from the Mediterranean to the Atlantic. The distance in between. Many who live there call the countries along the route Catalonia and the Basque Country.

And..

We were told to keep our distance. Keep the distance between. All this has characterized my photography during the year of 2021.

Showed my respect and reverence for all the thousands of young men who died in Normandy and around Omaha Beach during World War II. To the left the Americans. And Above the German boys, some of them only 18 years old.

What a terrible waist. Don't let this happen ever again.

The space between.

The surface or time between two things, phases, between pandemic and not pandemic, war and peace.

The space. Between.

Maybe that's when and where it happens?

Go in peace. See the beauty around. Wait for your soul. Look and feel.
